

SPORTS

ATHLETES READY FOR 6-MILE RUN;
ARMY AND NAVY TO MEET TODAY

SPORTS

FORTY-TWO ATHLETES
TO FACE STARTING GUN

Mayor Ainslie Will Give Signal Which Sends Runners on Hike.

TEN MEDALS ARE PRIZES
First Athlete to Finish Will Receive Solid Gold Emblem—Silver Trophy Goes to Best Team—Virginia and Richmond Favored.

Forty-two cross-country runners, representing Richmond, Virginia and North Carolina, will compete for a handsome silver trophy and ten medals this afternoon, when the second annual modified Marathon run of The Evening Dispatch will be held. The runners will assemble at Boulevard Field at 1 o'clock, and receive instructions and their numbers. The race will begin at 2:15, and will finish at Boulevard Field a few minutes before the start of the football game between the Richmond Athletic Club and the Sewanee eleven, of Norfolk.

Mayor George Ainslie will fire the starting gun and present the prizes to the winning athletes. The presentation will take place between the first and second halves of the football game.

University of Virginia runners hold the trophy, which must be won three times before any organization can retain it permanently. The Virginia team arrived here early today, and is determined to return to Charlottesville tonight with the cup. Virginia has one of the best cross-country teams in the South Atlantic division and is favored to win team honors again this year.

G. K. Shands, captain of the Virginia team, and the first Orange and Blue runner across the line last year, is with the team this year. He has practically the same men with him. A. R. Shands, Goward, Greene, Bannan, Stevens, Cohen and Leavell are the other Virginia runners. Last year's event was held over the country surrounding the Country Club of Virginia, and was one of the stiffest courses in this section. Shands and his teammates gave an impressive exhibition of cross-country running, and are in excellent condition this year as the result of a long practice grind.

Frank Dobson, University of Richmond harrier, is expected to take second team honors. The Spiders have an inexperienced outfit, but the men have been putting in considerable practice at West-Hampton recently, and "Skinny" Williams, captain of the track team, announces they are in the best of condition. Coach Dobson turned the cross-country team over to the track captain because he was busy with the gridiron squad. Dobson and Williams last night selected the men to represent the Spiders in the annual event. Hike, Dikie, Snyder, Miller, Bramm, Sadler, Ferguson, Johnson and Moore will represent the Red and Blue. Hike will be acting captain of the team.

Richmond took second place in the 1920 run, and its followers of the Spiders are pulling for them to make at least as good a showing this year. Williams has given the men a stiff practice session, and improvement was noticed in their recent workouts over that shown when the team first started.

"Bill" Wharton Will Run.
Local organizations are conceding the team victory and trophy to Virginia, but they predict that the first athlete in will be a Richmond boy. Richmond has an athlete declared to be one of the best distance runners in the South. He is "Bill" Wharton, former John Marshall High School, Church Hill Athletic Club and Virginia Tech star, winner of the 1920 run. Wharton outdistanced the Virginia team last year, while running under the colors of the Richmond Athletic Club. He is representing the Virginia Boat Club this year.

The course over which the 1921 run will be held is a good six miles. Starting from Boulevard Field, the runners will proceed south to Kensington Avenue, east on Kensington Avenue and Patterson Avenue to the road leading through Hampton Gardens, by this route to Cary Street Road, and along the thoroughfare back to the Boulevard and once more to Boulevard Field. A solid gold medal will be awarded the first runner across the line. Gold-filled medals go to the second and third athletes, silver to the next three, while the last four of the first ten will receive bronze medals.

Following is the entry list for all teams, with the exception of University of Virginia and the University of Richmond:

Elon College, W. E. Marlette, Brantock, Sholz and Hainer.
Virginia Boat Club—Wharton, Heubel, Stephenson, Alcott, Frank, Wood and Franklin.
Church Hill A. C.—Edwards, Beasley, Tucker, Smith, Hatter, Holman, Nixey and Pierce.
Knights of Columbus—Hain, Bernier, Dredlin, Doherty, Caravati and Thurman.
Coke Y. M. C. A.—L. E. Wilson and T. E. Wilson.

HARRISONBURG TEAM
BEATS FARMVILLE

Alumnae of the State Normal Schools of Harrisonburg and Farmville played a basketball game here yesterday afternoon in the gymnasium of the latter city. The game, in which the former students of the Harrisonburg institution were victorious by the score of 19 to 10. The game was witnessed by a large number of supporters for the respective teams, and was a hard-fought contest.

Proceeds of the game were divided between the teams to erect an alumnae building at Farmville and Harrisonburg.

BABE RUTH HITS
YANKS FOR $60,000

[By United News.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Babe Ruth, king of swat, is a modest violet. He doesn't think he's as good as much to the United States. So he's asking $15,000 less salary than the President gets, before signing up with the New York Americans for the 1922 season.

Ruth's demand, said to be $60,000, or double what he received the past season, would, if met, be the biggest paid any man connected with baseball.

Gibbons Knocks Out Dowd.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—Tommy Gibbons, of St. Paul, knocked out Dan Dowd, of Boston, in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen-round match here tonight. Dowd was knocked down three times before he finally went out before a terrific right cross to the jaw, when he crawled him on the canvas so heavily his head struck the floor with stunning force. He was knocked down twice in the first round, once in the second, three times in the fifth and once in the sixth.

Spiders' Star Back
Dislocates Collarbone

"Billy" Ziegler, native of Harrisburg, Pa., and star half back of the University of Richmond football team, dislocated his collarbone in the game between the Spiders and the William and Mary Indians here Thursday afternoon. The plunging back was taken out of the contest soon after booting a field goal from the forty-two-yard line, but the extent of his injury did not become known until yesterday.

Authorities at the University yesterday feared Ziegler had broken his collarbone. X-ray pictures yesterday afternoon showed the injury to be only a dislocation. Ziegler has been troubled with a "bad" shoulder all this season. He has completed his third season on the Red and Blue eleven, but Thursday was the first time he has been taken out of a game on account of injury. He will return to the University of Richmond next fall and will be a member of the 1922 Red and Blue team.

NORTH AND SOUTH MEET
IN GRID BATTLE TODAY

University of Georgia and Dartmouth to Play in Atlanta.

[By Associated Press.]
ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 25.—The football thoughts of all Dixie land, with virtually all home games out of the way, tonight centered on Grant Field, the home gridiron of Georgia Tech, where the "big green" eleven from Dartmouth College, meets the powerful squad from the University of Georgia tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in its first invasion of the South.

Dartmouth will enter the contest minus the services of some of her star players, according to reports tonight, but Captain Robertson and "Chick" Burke, both of whom have been on the hospital list for some time, will be in the line-up at the start of the battle. It was announced today, Robertson, considered by many experts as one of the best players that ever donned a football uniform, cannot do himself justice, it was said, because of many recent injuries.

Reports from the Georgia squad are that the Bulldogs are in prime condition because they busy with the game this season, except the 10-to-7 defeat by Harvard, although its schedule included such opponents as Auburn, Vanderbilt and Virginia. The record of the Eastern eleven, as it looks on paper, is less impressive. The Dartmouth players have been in Atlanta since last Monday, practicing at Grant Field, and getting accustomed to the new climatic conditions. The Georgia eleven arrived in the city today.

Preparations have been made for virtually the entire student body of the Georgia University to come to Atlanta tomorrow on a special train, and alumni of Dartmouth have sent a large delegation here to root for their alma mater. One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a football game in Atlanta is expected to see tomorrow's clash.

Members of the Dartmouth squad were the guests tonight at a banquet given here in their honor by the athletic association of the University of Georgia. Tomorrow night they will be honor guests at a dance, the Dartmouth Position. Georgia Threshies, left end, Reynolds; Threshies, left tackle, J. Bennett; Moore, left guard, Welch; Suttler, center, or Hartley; G. Moore, right guard, or Anthony; Midlinger, right tackle, or Vandiver; Lynch, right end, or Murray; Smith, quarter back, J. Reynolds; Collier, left half, or Randall; Burke, right half, or Thompson; Edwards, full back, or Collins.

Referee—MacGrath (Michigan); umpire—McGrath; head linesman—Springer (Pennsylvania).

La Salle Eleven Loses Game.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 25.—The La Salle College preparatory school football team suffered its first defeat of the season today at the hands of the Larchmont High School, of Chicago, 7 to 6.

EYES OF FOOTBALL WORLD
ARE ON ARMY-NAVY GAME

Service Teams Play Annual Contest This Afternoon in New York at Polo Grounds—French, Soldiers' Star, Not in First Line-Up.

[By United News.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The annual Army-Navy game tomorrow will be played under cloudy skies, the weather bureau states. Unsettled weather was forecast for evening, during the latter part of the game. Little change in temperature is in prospect.

[By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The Army and the Navy tonight were awaiting the sound of the bugle that tomorrow should set them plunging into each other for service gridiron honors of 1921.

The lads from Annapolis had their speeches fastened on what they deemed to be the star of victory, for they were giving the odds in the betting. But the boys from West Point had come down the Hudson, determined to bombard into oblivion the hopes of their cousins in the service, and confident that the defeats they had received from Yale and Notre Dame would only serve as a warning.

Defeated only by Penn State, after having battered Princeton into submission, the Midgies took the field today at the Polo Grounds and put in a period of snappy signal practice. Outside the gates, waiting to get in, the Army, and as soon as the Annapolis eleven had called it a day, the West Pointers began frisking over the gridiron.

Tonight both elevens turned in early. Tomorrow morning their supporters arrive—a regiment from Annapolis—to march onto the field and give New York its annual scenic treat.

PERFECT ORGANIZATION OF OLYMPIC ASSOCIATION

Delegates Reject Constitution Submitted by Secretary of War Weeks.

[By Associated Press.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The organization of the American Olympic Association was effected today at a meeting here attended by delegates from more than forty sport-governing bodies throughout the country.

After a bitter fight, the constitution for a proposed American Amateur Athletic Federation, as approved by the Secretary of War John W. Weeks, was withdrawn and the constitution proposed by the American Olympic committee was adopted. The vote in favor of the Olympic Association constitution was 53 to 20.

It was decided, however, by a vote of 66 to 7, that the constitution proposed by the Secretary of War be referred to the executive committee of the Olympic Association for consideration.

The officers of the new organization were elected as follows: President, Robert M. Thompson, Washington, D. C.; vice-presidents, William C. Prout, Boston, and John J. McGovern, New York, representing I. C. A. A. A.; secretary, Frederick W. Ruben, secretary A. A. U.; treasurer, Julius H. Barnes, Duluth, representing National Association of Amateur Quarters; auditor, Herman Oberbussing, New York, representing A. A. U.

The executive committee was named as follows: Colonel E. Mills, New York; W. C. Prout, Boston; Dr. R. H. Sayre, New York; General Patton, Murray, Hurlbert, New York; John J. McGovern, Washington, D. C.; and S. A. Simmons.

Arriving from Washington were officers high in each branch of the service, diplomats and statesmen, men prominent in the civic, financial and social life of the nation. Accompanying them, to gaze for the first time on a game of American football, were foreign delegates to the arms conference.

From North, South, East and West came old West Pointers able to get leave for the day's tourney, and old salts, whose shops were in near-by ports. And just to fill up the cracks, there will pour into the stadium every American, who has been able to capture a ticket.

Weather observers and custodians of the gridiron joined in promising conditions for fast play. The former predicted increasing cloudiness, but no rain, the latter predicted a satisfaction to the dried condition of the field by today's sunshine and breeze.

French, the Army's star back, will not be in the first line-up facing the Navy. It was announced tonight, he probably will be sent into action after the first half. While Conroy, Kochler, Barchet and Cruise will start for Navy in the back field, Hughes, Noyes and McKee will be used later. Coach Polwell said:

The probable line-up:
Navy.....left end.....Storek
Bolles.....left tackle.....Mulligan
Carney.....left guard.....Brodster
Larsen.....center.....Greene
Frawley.....right guard.....Garbisch
King.....right tackle.....Davidson
Taylor.....right half.....Wood
Conroy.....quarter back.....Wilhide or Johnson
Kochler.....left half.....Wood
Barchet.....right half.....Lawrence
Cruise.....full back.....Smythe

GOTHAM FANS TREATED TO GREAT EXHIBITION

Ten-Round Bout Between Lynch and Smith Turns Out to Be Corker.

By Westbrook Pegler.
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Joe Lynch and "Midge" Smith fought the greatest fight seen in New York since boxing was revived and purified a year ago. In the Garden ring here tonight, it was a ten-round battle and when the judges called it a draw, they were right. It was a winner between them, so it was called a draw, and fair enough, too.

Lynch bumped his forehead to the deck in the fourth round from a right smash on the jaw and fighting with his heart in his back, he stepped back to punch the "Midge" stupid at the close of the round. From the third round to the end, they slugged and hammered, science forgot, Lynch now wobbling on his skinny legs, then Smith groping in the fog.

Andy Chaney, the Baltimore featherweight, got a draw with Billy De Foe, of St. Paul, but seemed entitled to a slight shade. It was close, though De Foe was floored in the first round. This fight also was a ten-rounder.

The officers of the new organization were elected as follows: President, Robert M. Thompson, Washington, D. C.; vice-presidents, William C. Prout, Boston, and John J. McGovern, New York, representing I. C. A. A. A.; secretary, Frederick W. Ruben, secretary A. A. U.; treasurer, Julius H. Barnes, Duluth, representing National Association of Amateur Quarters; auditor, Herman Oberbussing, New York, representing A. A. U.

The executive committee was named as follows: Colonel E. Mills, New York; W. C. Prout, Boston; Dr. R. H. Sayre, New York; General Patton, Murray, Hurlbert, New York; John J. McGovern, Washington, D. C.; and S. A. Simmons.

Referee—MacGrath (Michigan); umpire—McGrath; head linesman—Springer (Pennsylvania).

La Salle Eleven Loses Game.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 25.—The La Salle College preparatory school football team suffered its first defeat of the season today at the hands of the Larchmont High School, of Chicago, 7 to 6.

INDEPENDENT ELEVENS
TO PLAY HERE TODAY

Richmond Athletic Club Will Encounter Sewanee, of Norfolk, at Boulevard Field.

Richmond Athletic Club and Sewanee Athletic Club, of Norfolk, will decide the independent football championship of Virginia this afternoon at Boulevard Field. In fact, the outcome of the contest will have a decided bearing upon the independent title of the South. Both teams have played the best eleven of their section, and have been victorious. The contest will start at 3 o'clock, immediately after the finish of the second annual Evening Dispatch modified Marathon run.

Sewanee comes to Richmond with a fast and heavy eleven and full of confidence as a result of their achievements on the gridiron this fall. The visiting team will have the advantage in weight, with a back field averaging more than 180 pounds. Richmond's quartet of backs, in fact, one, and the local boys have not found heavy opponents to be formidable in former contests this year.

There is only one way to determine the relative strength of Sewanee and Richmond, and this is by the unsatisfactory method of comparing scores. Both teams have played and defeated the Monarchs, of Norfolk, by practically the same score. Sewanee beat North Carolina State College, 26 to 6, with many of the regular players in the line-up of the Tarheels.

Captain Harry Carter is not expected to play for the local team today. He has been out of the game for the last several days with boils on his neck, and has been missed at his customary position, end. The captain will be on the bench in uniform, and will get into the contest if the physician of the club deems it advisable.

Goff, coach of the Randolph-Macon football team, will play one of the half back positions for Richmond today. He is one of the fastest backs ever seen on a Richmond gridiron, and became a favorite here last fall because of his ability to shoot forward passes. Goff's specialty is a swift, low spiral pass, just over the line of scrimmage. Last year this play gained considerable ground for the Richmond eleven in several games.

Sewanee will arrive at noon today with a large squad of players and many supporters. The team has admirers in Norfolk, and special cars were necessary to transport the team and its supporters to Richmond.

Following is the probable line-up and weights of the teams:

Sewanee—Brinson, 165, left end; O'Shaughnessy, 180, left tackle; Sorrell, 140, left guard; Campbell, 180, center; Winsome, 190, right guard; Treake, 220, right tackle; Borges, 155, right end; Johnson, 135, quarter back; Hendricks, 120, left half; 145, right half; Coffey, 180, full back; L. Stringer, 160, full back.

Officials—Moss (Washington and Lee), referee; Jones (Auburn), umpire; Heyward (U. of S. C.), head linesman; A. L. Straus, Jr., time-keeper.

OTHER MARKETS, PAGE 9

To Boys

who are learning. This is the place to learn about good clothing; the kind that will stand your hard knocks.

Good clothing is more economical than the cheap variety and is a good investment.

A good appearance is a perpetual endorsement.

Special Suits and Overcoats for boys, made on quality, modeled style, comfort woven into every seam.

And the Prices—more for your money than you've seen for years.

Burk & Company

The Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

FOOTBALL

Boulevard Field
RICHMOND ATHLETICS
VS.
SEWANEE, of Portsmouth
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 3 P. M.
Admission, $1.10 (including War Tax)

Gans-Rady Company

Offer Four Very Special Items of Interest for Today

AT $28.00—A very exceptional line of Men's and Young Men's Suits.

AT $29.50—A varied line of Men's and Young Men's Overcoats.

AT $ 3.15—A wonderful display of high-class Soft Hats.

AT $ 2.65—A special assortment of Earl & Wilson and Star-make Soft Cuff Shirts.

Every Item Has a Distinct Merit and Gives Opportunities to Purchase Economically

Gans-Rady Company

EVERYTHING COSTS LESS AT WEISBERGER'S
RICHMOND'S GREAT STORE

Suits and O'Coats

Fine, warm Overcoats in Gray and Tan Tweeds, plaid lined and well made. These Coats are attractive in appearance, coming in both the full and half-belted models, and will give unusual service. They are the kind you would naturally expect to pay $35 and $40 for.

Stylish, well-tailored suits can also be found in our Men's Department at an equally low price. Select your suit or overcoat today at only

$24.75

Silk Ties

A real Saturday Special. Beautiful Ties of extra good quality silk, a wide assortment, actual $1.00 values, 79c at

Men's Union Suits

Men's Union Suits, part wool, well-fitting and well-wearing, unusually warm and serviceable, special at $1.49

Special on Men's Shoes

Men's Shoes, the latest styles for this season's wear, well made of extra good quality leathers, all sizes and lasts, dressy and serviceable shoes; actual $10.00 values; specially priced at $7.50